

First Ever Antioch Alumni Advisory Council Formed

June 5, 2009 by admin

A first ever Alumni Advisory Council has been formed to advance the capabilities of Antioch University Seattle by conducting activities that lead to growth in charitable contributions and the enrollment of outstanding students.

Selected to serve one year terms on the council are Richard Beckerman, M.S. Management '05; Paul Birney, B.A. in Liberal Studies '06; Jim Booth, M.A. Organizational Psychology '98; Betti Clipsham, B.A. in Liberal Studies '99, M.A. Organizational Psychology '01; Rajaa Gharbi, M.A. Whole Systems Design '98; Nancy Hansen, M.A. Psychology '91; Lysa Hansen, former B.A. student; Dr. Christie Kaaland, core faculty in the School of Education; Paula Kinney, M.A. Psychology '82; Helen Maynard, M.A. Education '01; Greg Mowat, M.S. Management '99; Kathleen Paul, M.A. Strategic Communications '07; Tracy Rector, former M.A. Education student; Lynn Ronald, B.A. in Liberal Studies '02, M.A. Education '03; Lourdes Sampera-Tsukada, community representative; Eric Warn, AUS director of alumni relations; Michelle Wilkinson, AUS director of development; Ken Wilson, M.A. Organizational Psychology '03; and Sherill Zemek, M.A. Organizational Psychology '05.